

VICTORIAN SECURITY
INSTITUTE

ASSOCIATIONS INCORPORATION ACT 1981 VICTORIAN SECURITY INSTITUTE INCORPORATED.

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

Preamble

The Association was established in 1973 by a group of security managers and security officers who had an interest in developing the science of security management.

Today, the Association's membership consists of security practitioners from a broad spectrum of industries who share a common belief in the value of high professional and ethical standards for the security industry.

The Association is instrumental in initiating and funding educational and professional development programs to assist its membership and the security industry at large. For example the Diploma of Security Management was an initiative of the Association that is now conducted by tertiary institutions nationally.

The Association provides high quality seminars on a wide range of security related topics.

Statement of Purpose

The name of the Incorporated Association is Victorian Security Institute Incorporated ("the Association").

The primary purpose for which the Association is established is to be a leading security industry organisation promoting professionalism, ethics and service delivery in the security industry in the state of Victoria, and to:

- Promote professional standards through a Code of Ethics;
- Encourage on-going professional development;
- Provide networking opportunities to members and interested parties through conferences, functions and training;
- facilitate the continual acquiring and sharing on knowledge and information relating to the security industry.

Solely for the purpose of furthering those purposes set out above, the Association shall have power to:

- invest and deal with monies of the Association not immediately required in such manner as is from time to time thought fit;
- raise or borrow money upon such terms and in such manner as it thinks fit;
- secure the repayment of monies so raised or borrowed or the payment of a debt or liability of the Association by giving mortgages, charges or securities upon or over all or any of the property of the Association; and
- give any guarantee or indemnity for the payment of money or the performance of any contractual obligation or undertaking entered into by or on behalf of a not-for-profit association or company; and
- become surety or security for or on behalf of any not-for-profit association or company and without exception either alone or in association or jointly and severally or jointly and severally with other persons, trustees, companies, associations or entities; and
- for the purpose of securing the payment of any money or the performance of any such contractual obligation or undertaking for which the Association has become or may become liable under and by virtue of any guarantee indemnity or other contract pursuant to this paragraph, to mortgage or provide a lien or fixed or floating charge or to otherwise charge the whole or any part of the assets of the Association (in the present or the future); and
- no Lender shall be concerned to enquire into the necessity for any such borrowing or as to the purpose for which it is required or as to the application of money borrowed.
- delegate in writing the exercise of all or any of the powers or discretionary authorities hereby conferred on the Association and to execute any Powers of Attorney or other instruments necessary to effect such a delegation;
- act as trustee;
- accept and hold upon trust real and personal property; and
- do all other things that are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the purposes and the exercises of the powers of the Association.
